WHO WE ARE...

Over the years Britain has been at the forefront of technological development within the global economy and this is as true today as it ever was. This has been achieved through world class innovation and an ability to react quickly and efficiently to the most recent market trends. The constantly evolving nature of the sector means that it is imperative that companies are able to keep track of the latest developments and this is where Industry UK excels.

Covering all areas of the UK's multi-billion pound industrial base, Industry UK is a comprehensive monthly publication that looks at the most important issues affecting the marketplace. Featuring in-depth interviews with leading industry figures, Industry UK is ideally placed to give its readers the very latest news, market analysis and opinions in order to provide an accurate up-to-date representation of the trends within the industry.

READERSHIP

IUK's readership has been carefully selected from a Dun & Bradstreet customised database to give you and your key associates access to a targeted readership in excess of 50,000 top decision makers and key personnel within the UK's sustainability industry.
